FRIDAY, JULY 10

Midsummers Music: “Revolution & Independence” – 7pm | $40

Violinist and composer George Meyer has created a special commemorative work for Midsummer audiences that will capture a sense of the time and its import. The work features George, as violin soloist, with The Griffon String Quartet. It will also include Heather Zinninger on flute and a narrator. The program begins with Mozart’s Flute Quartet, written nearly contemporaneously with the signing of the Declaration and will conclude with a string quartet by George Chadwick, one of the first distinctive American classical composers who helped create “the American” sound even before Dvorak. For tickets visit midsummersmusic.com

MONDAY, JULY 12

Peninsula Reptile House – 2pm | FREE

Join us for a fun event from the Peninsula Reptile House. They will be showing present day dinosaurs and teaching you how to care for them and their habitat. Come see and handle these beautiful creatures! kresspavilion.org/reptiles

THURSDAY, JULY 23

Between the Pages Book Club – 10:30am | FREE

Join the book club at 10:30 to discuss “Class Clown” by Dave Barry. Visit kresspavilion.org/bookclub for more info!

Midsummers Music: “Haydn, Mozart, & Wranitzky – 7pm | $40

A program of string music featuring winds – and a Symphony as a bonus! Haydn wrote his last 12 symphonies for London, and “The Clock” is one of those. The impresario who commissioned him made chamber versions with Haydn’s permission. The program opens with Mozart’s Oboe Quartet – a tour de force and virtual concerto for the oboe. In between, we feature a discovery – a composer from Moravia who came to Vienna. Born the same year as Mozart, he was hugely successful both as composer and conductor (he conducted the premiere of Beethoven’s First Symphony). His Sextet for Flute, Oboe and Strings is one of seven such works and shows the depths of what late 18th century Vienna got to enjoy. For tickets visit midsummersmusic.com

SUNDAY, JULY 26

Midsummers Music: “Passionate Perspectives” – 4pm | $40

This is music that will bore into your very soul. Even the most hardened heart will have to yield to these works. Two wonderful Czech Romantic composers and the great Argentinian Tango master bring back-stories to their pieces that overlay them with spine-tingling Amore. Visit midsummersmusic.com for tickets.
