MONDAY, JUNE 7

“Expressions in Metal: Sculptures by Richard Edelman” Exhibit Open | Free
The Egg Harbor Public Arts Initiative and The Kress Pavilion are pleased to announce a major summer exhibit “Expression in Metal: Sculptures by Richard Edelman.”

The exhibit consists of one bronze and six large-scale steel outdoor sculptures, along with small models, casts, sketches, photos and text representing the process found inside the Kress Library. Together with three permanently displayed sculptures in Egg Harbor, the exhibit represents Edelman’s diverse styles as well as his working methods, philosophy and life.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 9

Virtual Only: Door County Environmental Council hosts Overtourism and the Capacity of Door County - 7pm | Free

This event will be a Zoom panel discussion. Please visit dcec-wi.org for more details.

Electric Cars 101 - 2pm | Free

It’s electric! Did you know that Egg Harbor Library has two electric vehicle (EV) charging stations? EV’s and hybrids have become very popular in the past year. We’ll go over the basic types, how to purchase one and the future of electric vehicles. We’ll be joined by Egg Harbor resident, William Freyman who will share his experience as an owner of a hybrid plug in vehicle owner. This zoom presentation and demonstration will include time for questions at the end.
